JOSEPH McCULLEY

McCulley Appointed To Federal Position

Newmarket — The minister of justice at Ottawa yesterday announced that Joseph McCulley, M.A., headmaster of Pickering College, has been appointed one of two deputy commissioners of penitentiaries. The other is Dr. L. P. Gendreau, chief of psychiatric services for the Manitoba mental hospitals.

Mr. McCulley said that he would be leaving Pickering College and Newmarket and would take up residence in Ottawa sometime in September.

Robert E. K. Rourke who has been the associate headmaster of the college will take over the headmastership and H. M. Beer will be the assistant headmaster. Mr. Rourke has been associated with the school since 1928 as instructor in mathematics and is well known in his work with operettas. Mr. Beer teaches romance languages at the college.

Mr. McCulley's new work will be concerned mostly with the training of prison staff and the educational aspect of the prisoner. His first concern will be with young men committed to federal penal institutions and with first offenders.

Mr. McCulley became headmaster of Pickering College in 1927. He had received his early schooling in St. Thomas, graduated from the University of Toronto in 1924 and spent two years at Oxford before coming to Newmarket. Since that time he has been active in the educational world and taken a deep interest in the young people of the country. He served under the late Arthur Purvis on the Youth Employment Commission, 1936-37. He was chairman of the Young Men's Committee, Y.M.C.A., for ten years and is an honorary member of the American Headmasters' Association. In 1945 he was a civilian advisor on the organization of Khaki University, England.

This summer marks the end of 20 years' headmastership of Pickering and association with this community.

Guesses To Within 7 Beans In Jar At Davis Picnic

Newmarket — So now it's out. Mr. X for this year is none other than Charles Bovair, chief engineer at the Davis Leather Co. Ltd. and the man to finally find him was Howard Brown. And get a load of Cal Davis—he guessed within seven the number of beans in the jar! Some guys have all the luck!

The Davis Leather Co. picnic, held on Saturday at Alcona Beach, had another full and varied program this year. The annual picnics were begun last year. "Mr. X" was a Davis employee whom others at the picnic were supposed to find by inquiring of each other. "Are you the mysterious Mr. X?" Last year he remained undetected at the end of the picnic. Verna Hollingshead was the athlete of the day when she won the women's open race, the women's race for company employees only and the women's shoe kicking contest; but Mrs. Jack Gibson proved

GIRL SAVES CHILD FROM LAKE HOLE

Newmarket — Tragedy was averted at the Davis Leather Co. Ltd. picnic on Saturday afternoon when an employee of the Newmarket branch of the Bank of Montreal rescued Amos Albert Sweeney, 12, son of Mrs. Jack Wright and the late Jack Sweeney, from drowning.

Eighteen-year-old Sylvia Dolby, who arrived in Canada from Sherness, Kent, England, in December, was the heroine of the episode. "I went out for a swim just before supper," she said. "I was swimming in about five and a half feet of water when I saw the youngster waving his arms and shouting for help. I put my arm around his neck and swam in until it was shallow enough to walk."

"I don't understand how he got into such deep water because he apparently is unable to swim at all," Miss Dolby said she was "not a particularly good swimmer. We used to swim in the ocean in England, but swimming in the lakes here is a lot different," she said. "It's much harder to stay up." Miss Dolby is now living with an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Main St. N.

Amos said he had been playing in water up to his chest but had "slipped" into a hole.

ON THE 'ARMY' CIRCUIT
Aurora—Bill Beazer is engaged in carnival work at Three Rivers, Quebec City, and Lachine this month.

WINS N.Y. TRIP

Newmarket — Mrs. C. F. Willis won a trip to New York last night at the Newmarket Lions club carnival. The carnival continues to night, with a street dance on Main St., Newmarket, as well as several of the booths and games including bingo.

In event of rain tonight, the dance will be held over to Friday night. Norm Burling's orchestra will provide the music for old time and modern dancing.

Other winners last night were: Ted Baillie, 4629, washing machine; Wes Tobey, 2798, sewing machine; Bert Boyd, Queensville, 90-33, bicycle; Barbara Pritchard, 9473, cedar chest; Mrs. Doddemeade, 8625, chair; Miss Frances Luesby, 11541, lamp; Mrs. L. Taylor, Toronto, 5078, toilette set; Howard Dennis, R. R. 2, Aurora, 278, hassock.

LOSE CONTROL OF CAR, TWO IN HOSPITAL

Mount Albert—Marion Chard, 19, 205 Lawrence Ave. E., Toronto, is in "very critical" condition in York County hospital as a result of injuries received when the car in which she was riding went out of control and rolled over several times near Mount Albert. Another passenger of the car, Clifford Stiles, 23, 191 Enmerdale Ave., Toronto, is also in hospital but his injuries are not believed serious.

According to police, the accident occurred at about 10:30 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 16. "While travelling north on con. 8, East Gwillimbury, John W. Buttery, 21, 8 Langmuir Cres., Toronto, apparently lost control of the car about one mile south of Mount Albert," police said. "The car careened back and forth across the road, rolling over several times, and it ended up on its right side against the guard rail on the east side of the road. The left front wheel was torn off. Ellen Morrison, 19, 210 Lawrence Ave. E., Toronto, was another passenger in the car."

According to Dr. G. W. E. Macpherson, Mount Albert, Miss Chard suffered several broken ribs which punctured a lung, and a concussion. Miss Morrison and Buttery were treated for cuts and bruises but were not admitted to hospital.

"The party had come from Toronto with the idea of going to Musselman's Lake but they apparently changed their minds and decided to go to Lake Simcoe," Constable Joseph Jardine said. "No charges have been laid yet."

COOL BATH DELAYED BY LIGHTNING BOLT

Newmarket—Sam Rusto of 66 Eagle St. says he was struck on the head by a bolt of lightning in one of the worst electric storms of the season which descended upon this district Monday night. However, he suffered no serious effects from the shock.

Mr. Rusto was just about to step into his bath when the lightning came through the open window near which he was standing and struck him on the top of the head. Mr. Rusto said that he had a fairly large bump on his head after the incident.

The Rustos on the following morning discovered a burn on the concrete, believed to have been where the bolt struck, between their house and garage.

Considering the intensity of the storm, the Newmarket hydro suffered a relatively small amount of damage. One transformer was burned out at the corner of Eagle and Andrew Sts. and a fuse on a transformer at the corner of Simcoe and Eagle Sts. was blown out.

The Sharon hydro crew was out, expecting the worst, but very little damage was reported in that part of the district.

DENIES STATEMENT

Newmarket—Mrs. John O'Connor, Queen St. W., Newmarket, said Tuesday she did not express any opinions to Norman Sedore concerning the tree on the boulevard in front of her home prior to the time when the branches were cut off.

In last week's issue Mr. Sedore was quoted as saying "she (Mrs. O'Connor) was agreeable to having the tree trimmed."

TO CONSIDER CRUISER FOR TOWN POLICE

Newmarket—Councillor R. C. Morrison, chairman of the police committee of the Newmarket town council, introduced a motion on Monday night recommending that the town buy a police cruiser to be used by the police department only in the performance of police duties. After the motion had been reworded, it was passed.

Councillor Morrison said he had met the police following the rejection by the council of the department's proposal that Chief Constable Ronald Watt furnish the town with a police cruiser for the sum of $18 a week. "At that time members of the council expressed themselves as being in favor of the town purchasing its own cruiser, and the men of the department are happy with that arrangement," Councillor Morrison said. "Our problem will be to purchase a suitable car, but we are unable to face that problem until this motion is passed."

"I believe the matter should be left over until we have a full council," Councillor H. J. Luck said. "There are three members absent tonight."

"I consulted Mrs. Edwards about the matter and she is in favor of the motion," Councillor Morrison said. Reeve Evans said that Deputy Reeve J. L. Spillotte had expressed himself as being in favor when the matter came up before.

"The motion would be better if it were worded that the committee be instructed to get prices and receive tenders," Councillor Frank Bowser said. Councillor Luck agreed. "The tenders should come before council," he said.

"I think the committee should be empowered to buy a car when and where it can get one," Councillor George Byers said. "Suppose the committee were placed in the happy position of being able to obtain a suitable car. Would it then have to come to council to get its assent?" Councillor Birrell said that was the only fair way of handling the situation.

"Two members of council are car dealers," Councillor Luck observed. Councillors Birrell and Byers assured council that under no circumstances would either of them submit a tender.

The wording of the motion was changed to "that the town consider the purchase of a police cruiser with the police committee to bring in a report on prices," and was passed.

LAST READING OF BY-LAW POSTPONED

Newmarket—Third reading of a by-law to close a right of way from Prospect St. into the Marsh estate was postponed when Councillor H. J. Luck asked what would be done with the right of way after it is closed off. Offers have been received by council from two property owners to purchase pieces of the right of way, so that they can clear it of weeds, but Councillor Luck said no provision has been made for the rest of the property.

Councillor George M. Byers said that the right of way, which has its outlet on Prospect St. between his home and the home of Dr. Roy Lockhart, has always been used by Dr. Lockhart, by himself, and several other parties by mutual consent. Councillor Luck said that this would no longer be possible if the land was turned back to the town.

RARE PLANT BLOOMS AT NIGHT

Mrs. Julia Cowal is pictured here with her midnight blooming plant, Rare Night in Cereus. Staff photo finished by Budd.

"Rare Night in Cereus" Opens Buds in Darkness

Newmarket—Rare Night in Cereus, a plant of the cactus family, is only supposed to bloom once every four years, according to Mrs. Julia Cowal, Denne Blvd., but her plant has been doing considerably better than that. Mrs. Cowal got her plant from a friend in Jordan while on a hitch-hiking tour with her husband, Daniel, five years ago.

As a rule, the plant reaches full bloom at approximately midnight.

"The plant bloomed for the first time two years ago," Mrs. Cowal says. "I think it would have bloomed again last year because it had buds on it, but I didn't give it enough water."

At precisely 9:25 p.m. on August 13 of this year, however, one of the new buds began to open and at midnight the flower, which is the color of and smells like an Easter lily, was fully open. It measured 12½" from top to bottom and 9½" across. The flower stayed open until 5:50 a.m. of the following day, when it began to close rapidly and by 6 a.m. was completely closed.

Mrs. Cowal says she thinks that at least some of the eight other buds on the plant will open too, because one is already showing signs of growth. The species is believed to have originated in the United States.

MOTHER IS ILL

Newmarket—Angus Morrison is in Stroud this week owing to the serious illness of his mother.

DOUGHNUT OR TOMATO

A tomato shaped like a doughnut, hole and all. That's what Hugh Flanagan grew in his garden on north Main St. Appearing quite healthy, the tomato has a hole you can put your thumb through in its centre. The tomato measures 15½ inches in outside circumference and weighs under a pound.

TREE TO COME DOWN?

Newmarket — On Monday night the Newmarket town council received letters from two firms of tree experts concerning the old elm tree on Timothy St. One firm estimated the cost of repairing the tree and putting it in a safe condition at $1,000. The firm said that even then the tree would only be safe for seven to ten years.

The firm also submitted a tender for the removal of the tree and for the removal of the stump. The letters were referred to the property committee.

CLEAR 'WALK BY-LAW' BACK TO COMMITTEE

Newmarket—A by-law to prevent the display of merchandise on sidewalks was referred back to the by-law committee at the meeting of the town council on Monday night. The proposed by-law contained the provision that violators would be liable to a fine of $50 and costs or 21 days, with the by-law to take effect August 19. Clerk Wesley Brooks told council that by-law 22, passed in 1891, prohibited the use of more than 18 inches of sidewalk for display purposes. He said the by-law has never been rescinded.

Members of the council turned down the first clause of the proposed new by-law, which says in effect that no portion of the sidewalk can be used for display purposes. The second clause said in effect that sidewalks could be used for a reasonable length of time during the loading and unloading of merchandise, and merchandise could also be stored there, but could not be sold or offered for sale.

"I am not clear enough on this by-law to vote on it," Councillor G. M. Byers said. "I am definitely in favor of sidewalks being kept clear." Councillor R. C. Morrison said that if the old by-law were enforced it would be all right.

CAR STOLEN
Newmarket—Chief Constable Ronald Watt said yesterday that Stanley Clark, 55 Niagara St., Newmarket, reported his car stolen on Saturday night.

"The car was a blue 1934 Chevrolet coach, license No. 72758," Chief Watt said. "It was not locked but the keys were not in it when it was stolen."

Newmarket—Arthur Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lee, Newmarket, arrived home on Friday evening after two and a half years in hospital. Mr. Lee went overseas with the tank corps in 1943, was hospitalized in Italy in 1944, and has been in hospital ever since.

Urge Regulation Of Private Boats

Newmarket—A coroner's jury composed of Tom Birrell, Aubrey Seythes, Ken Flett, Jim Sloss and Bert Morrison on Thursday night brought in a verdict that James Davy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Davy, Toronto, came to his death accidentally as a result of burns sustained in a boat explosion on July 24, 1947, at Dawson's Boat Harbor, Keswick. Coroner Dr. L. W. Dales presided, assisted by Dr. Smirle Lawson, chief coroner for Ontario. The jury "strongly" recommended that all pleasure craft be licensed, standards set for the number of people carried, minimum life saving equipment, fire fighting equipment, together with fire prevention equipment; "that all operators of gasoline powered craft be required to pass a marine safety test, that all craft be inspected at the time of licensing and that a government certificate of seaworthiness be required at the time of purchase or change of ownership."

Ted Davy, 1 Fairway Rd., Islington, told the court he had bought the boat on Monday, July 21, and had taken possession of it at that time.

"On Thursday, the day of the accident, I took the boat out at about noon and took it over to the gas pump and filled the tanks. About 2 or 2:30 p.m. we went over to go out in the boat again. We noticed some fumes at the time but I had noticed some fumes when I bought the boat. Mr. Doherty warned us to always run the blower, which we did for at least five minutes."

"Did you start your engine with your hatch off or closed?" Dr. Lawson asked. "I believe it was closed. I was up on the top deck. Mr. Leonard went in to the boat."

"You smell fumes and start one of those engines with the hatch closed—you are almost certain to blow up," Dr. Lawson commented. "All the cases we had around Ontario were where they started the engine with the hatch closed. It is almost invariably fatal."

"The point is that it is not sufficient to run just a blower?" Dr. Dales inquired. "Every case we have had where people have been killed within the last year, they started the motor with the hatch closed and Mr. Davy started with the hatch closed," Dr. Lawson said.

Mr. Davy said the boat was a big cruiser type. "I noticed fumes the night I bought the boat. It was a fairly old boat and I thought possibly it was just an old motor. I couldn't tell whether it was raw gas or carbon monoxide. The smell was more pronounced on Thursday. James and Doug, my other son, were

BUS CATCHES FIRE

Newmarket—A fire in the motor of a Gray Coach Lines bus in the Fildey and Gordon garage resulted in a rush call for the fire department around 8:45 yesterday morning. The fire was extinguished by a hand pump and little damage was done to the bus.

Moot Underground Hydro To Halt Stoppages, Hazards

Newmarket—Reeve Arthur D. Evans on Monday night introduced a motion into council requesting the Newmarket hydro commission to report on the cost of putting all wires underground, and on the difference in cost between reconstruction of the present light and power systems and an underground system.

The motion also included a request that the hydro commission move the poles on the east side of Main St. from W. C. Lundy's Dry Goods store to the top of the hill, inside of the sidewalks as a safety measure, and that the commission consider moving all poles on the east side of Main St. from the waterworks to the top of the hill, "as part of the general improvement of Main St."

Reeve Evans said that if the requests were carried out one of the present traffic hazards would be removed, Main St. could be widened at a later date, and some power stoppages from thunder storms would be avoided. He said it is only a matter of time until a new system will have to be installed and that eventually the whole town should have underground wiring.

"It's a good plan, but it should be extended to Queen St.," Councillor Frank Bowser said. Councillor Tom Birrell said in his opinion the plan should be extended to Ontario St. "There are going to be traffic and parking problems in that area in the future," he said.

"It would definitely be an advantage to have the underground system," Councillor Luck agreed. The motion was passed unanimously.

SKULL FRACTURED IN BIKE-CAR MEET

Newmarket—Marian Holdas, a Polish veteran employed by Elton Armstrong, Armistage, is "doing well" in York County hospital after suffering a fractured skull when his bicycle collided with a car at the corner of Lorne and Millard Aves. Friday. Dr. G. Mervyn Peever said Holdas was brought to the hospital on Friday night in a serious condition but is now conscious and expected to make a rapid recovery.

Police said the accident occurred at approximately 10:05 p.m. on Friday evening. "Charles Bennington, 20 Victoria St., Newmarket, was driving north on Lorne Ave. and was approaching the corner of Millard Ave. Holdas was riding west on Millard and the collision occurred at the corner when he attempted to turn. Mr. Bennington was on his right side of the road. Holdas did not have any light on his bicycle. No charges have been laid," Chief Constable Ronald Watt said.

PUBLIC APATHETIC TOWARDS ACCIDENTAL DEATH

Accidental death has become so common that public apathy towards it has grown to an alarming degree. Death by accident — by its very wording, death from causes that could have been avoided — is accepted as one of the hazards of existence almost on a level with the possibility of rain the day the car is washed.

Coroner Dr. L. W. Dales said last week at the inquest into the death of Mr. Clement King that "there is a strong tendency after an accident to speed a call for an ambulance, speed the victim to the hospital, when he dies to speed him to the funeral parlor and to speed him again to his last resting place." With equal haste, the causes of the accident are forgotten until they claim another victim.

By means of an inquest, the circumstances of the fatality are brought to light and recommendations made to prevent future repetition of such accidents. As important, are the press reports of the inquest proceedings through which newspaper readers, if they wish the lesson, can learn what circumstances contributed to the fatality and judge for themselves how to avoid them. Towards that end, The Era and Express of last week carried a full report of the King inquest, and this week, of the Davey inquest.

The report of the latter will, perhaps, excite greater interest because it exposes the lack of regulation in the operation of gasoline-powered motorboats, a truly shocking condition for a province in which so many of these craft are used. The need for regulation is obvious, not only in the fatality which caused the inquest, but in the numerous reports this year of similar accidents.

Although a gasoline-powered boat is in many ways similar to an automobile, there exists no agency to inspect the seaworthiness of such craft, to ensure a minimum of safety equipment, and to license the operator. Yet motor boats are potentially dangerous because of the fuel they burn, and an irresponsible man at the helm of one of these fast craft bears a real comparison to a child at the wheel of an auto on a crowded city street.

Wide publicity on the proceedings of the Davey inquest may serve to prevent many deaths in the future, but it remains for government regulation, as recommended by the jury, and strictly enforced, to make the necessary reduction of the number of deaths on the water.

BUTTER INCREASE AND THE OLEO BAN

In another column, there appears an editorial from the Financial Post protesting the ban against the manufacture of oleomargarine. The editorial is particularly timely because of the reports of an increase in cost of butter. As the price of butter continues to rise, the argument against the cheaper substitute becomes increasingly untenable.

To the points in the Financial Post editorial, we add this: If the government is going to assume the responsibility for the ban against the manufacture of oleomargarine, then it must also assume the responsibility of keeping the cost of butter to the consumer within reason. We question not that increased cost of production has made a rise in butter cost to the consumer inevitable. But since butter production is without the competition that in other industries keeps prices down, it remains for the government to act.

MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES NOT AS OTHERS

It is possible that the death by drowning of a Toronto youngster last week would never have happened if the lifeguards had been on duty instead of on strike. That is the evidence from the news reports in the Toronto press. It is the testimony of one of the striking guards.

The accident emphasizes the important distinction which must be maintained between a municipal employee charged with the protection of life and property, and an industrial employee. Nine times out of ten, the latter in his disagreements with management directly affects no one but himself and his employer. A strike of the former can result, as events have shown, in a needless loss of life.

Too often, the public safety has been used as a means to an end by both municipal employees and the municipality. The man employed as a policeman or fireman as a rule possesses to a high degree an awareness of his responsibilities. His sensitivity to his duty has kept him working under conditions that would be intolerable in industry. In Toronto, for example, the lifeguards, although on strike, maintained a volunteer patrol in private boats along the beaches.

Conversely, less scrupulous public servants have used the threat to public safety, in event of a strike, to cow the municipality into granting unwarranted salaries and other favors. The need to maintain public protection has been made into a two-edged sword. No matter how it is used, the public suffers.

Under no circumstances should there be an interruption in the protection of the public either through the refusal of the municipality to maintain its employees as they have a right to expect or by an attempt of municipal employees to exact unreasonable demands. One might expect that the municipality and its employees, aware of their heavy responsibility towards the public, would never permit disagreement to reach the point where a strike follows. The fact that it did

As long as municipal employees are considered in the same sense as any other worker, the risk of an interruption of public protection will continue to exist. The alternative is the establishment of provincial standards for working conditions among municipal employees, with a permanent commission to administer the law. Only then will the public be protected from developments such as brought about the lifeguard's strike in Toronto, and its resultant tragedy.

NO THREE-RING CIRCUS ON WAR CONTRACTS HERE

In recent weeks, a committee of the United States Senate has been enquiring into alleged irregularities of wartime plane contracts between the government and Mr. Howard Hughes, movie producer and plane maker. The reports of the enquiry have provided a most satisfying reading for those who like their politics compounded in equal parts with sex and intrigue.

Throughout the enquiry, the American press has been serving up a heavy diet of testimony which contains tales of parties supposed to have been attended by high officers and government figures, parties which rival the Arabian Nights in their splendor. Indeed, so glamorous have been the trappings in which the alleged misdeeds have been clothed that they threaten to overshadow the cause of the investigation.

Last week, however, it all came to an end leaving the public still wondering about certain suggestive entries in the expense accounts of one, John Meyer (the editor disclaims any connection), who was publicity man for Mr. Hughes. It seems that Mr. Meyer can't be found. That and other affairs requiring the attention of the senators is said to be the reason for the halt of the enquiry for the time being. Mr. Hughes, who evidently considers that he came out the victor, is confident the enquiry will not be resumed.

Although the enquiry as such has no bearing on Canadian affairs, it has received wide publicity here. Possibly the motive was two-fold. The reader interest, regardless of what side of the border, was obvious but we wouldn't be a bit surprised if the coverage given in Canadian papers had its source in a certain smugness over the Canadian war contract record.

To the best of our knowledge, there was a minimum of profiteering here. Irregularities were uncovered in the odd instance by our police, and convictions followed trials in our courts, but there was nothing remotely resembling the three-ring circus that went under the name of a senate investigation in the United States. And it is something to regard with no small amount of pride.

Canadians have by no means a faultless claim to garments of snowy purity but they can put in a bid on a certain amount of respect for the orderly process of the law and community interest.

MOVIE INDUSTRY TO 'PURIFY' ADVERTISING

The movie industry has been talking of setting up a code to "purify" movie advertising. That such an action is long overdue is obvious from reading the advertisements of three films being shown in Toronto last week as they appeared in a Toronto paper.

For the film, The Other Love, the advertising copy reads: "Dare any woman take it — a secret holiday with the other love. She crowded a lifetime of living, a lifetime of loving into two glorious weeks. She found the other love . . . and paid the price." And from the same advertisement, as captions under illustrations, "I wanted orchids . . . and his lips on mine." "Those rapacious moonlit hours aboard the yacht." "He gave me thrills, a taste for danger."

For the film, The Woman on the Beach, "Go ahead, say it . . . I'm no good" and "Strangely beautiful . . . strangely hard . . . inciting men to love . . . driving them to madness." For The Unfaithful, "It's so easy to cry shame" and "If she were yours, could you forgive?" About the only thing that can be said about such lurid copy is that it was consistent with the temperature of last week.

Industry spokesmen answering critics of the moral tone of Hollywood products have chanted in unison "Evil he who evil thinks" as the only reply to demands for an improved product. It's no answer when one is confronted with advertising copy which deliberately panders to the low boiling point of its audience. The evil is not in the thinking but in what inspires the thought.

The action of the movie industry in regulating its advertising shows a growing sense of responsibility. But it still has a long way to go before it shows the maturity one might expect from such a major enterprise.

What Others Think THIS MONOPOLY WILL BE BROKEN

(The Financial Post)

Claims that margarine is a much inferior food product to butter are blasted sky high in the current Canadian Medical Association Journal. Good margarine, it states bluntly, is actually more nutritious than butter. This scientific journal advocates continuous pressure until the ban on the sale of manufacturing of margarine is lifted.

All across the country the clamor is growing against this senseless and grossly unfair restriction on a wholesome food product. Farmers' organizations which support the ban are losing thousands of friends by their shortsighted attitude. Eventually parliament will be forced to end the butter monopoly it never should have sanctioned.

In the meantime, if they are smart, farmers and farm organizations should disassociate themselves from the small and selfish pressure group that upholds the margarine ban. Until they do so, all their arguments against special privileges, restricted markets, and any sort of excessive protection, are just so much eyewash.

Never in any democratic country was there anything which compared with the air-tight monopoly butter producers have foisted on Canada. There is nothing like it in the United Kingdom or the United States. Predominantly dairy countries, like Denmark and Holland, are major producers of margarine. There is no more excuse for the ban on this product than there would be for one on brown bread or brown eggs.

MORE LOAD PER INCH OF WHEELBASE
MORE PROFIT PER TRIP . . .
MORE MILES PER DOLLAR . . .

It pays you to own a REO, because it is built for you by people who make only trucks and buses. REO has cut repairs to a minimum by making vital parts heavier — by precision truck engineering. The REO More-Load design carries more load per inch of wheelbase, so each trip pays you maximum returns. REO turns in a shorter radius, parks easier, gets through traffic with less delay. We would like to have you drive a REO and see for yourself — no obligation.

SAVE ON SERVICE AND REPAIR ANY TYPE OF TRUCK

It pays to use first-class mechanics and service men. Our prices are reasonable because our men know how to put their fingers on the spot — and get results without wasting your time and money. They know trucks.

BIG-CAR QUALITY

YOU'LL LIKE THAT BIG-CAR STYLING!
You'll like the long, low lines of the new Chevrolet! You'll like the look of moviness and sturdiness. That big, beautiful, built-in body is by Fisher, you know — the only body by Fisher in the low-price field!

YOU'LL LIKE THESE BIG-CAR FEATURES!
Chevrolet's packed with features that give you Big-Car comfort and safety. Positive Action Hydraulic Brakes, for example, with exclusive design features for softer, surer stops. Unified Knee Action, for instance, that adds stability and ease of steering, as well as riding comfort.

THIS — YOU'LL LOVE!
But your greatest thrill will come when you find out that Chevrolet is in the lowest-priced line . . . the line that costs less for gas, oil and upkeep. Chevrolet's the one that gives you Big-Car Quality at low cost!

The growing demand for the new Chevrolet is setting an all-time record. We cannot hope for many months to fill all the orders pouring in. If you are among the many who have set your sights on Chevrolet's Big-Car Quality at Low Cost, we suggest that while you wait, you rely on your Chevrolet Dealer's service to keep your present car running smoothly and safely.

PINE ORCHARD

There was a splendid attendance of members and grandchildren at the grandmothers' meeting of W.I. at the home of Mrs. Walter Johnston on Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 18. In spite of the thermometer registering 95 degrees in the shade, everyone had a good time. We were happy to have Mrs. Chas. Flintoff, Newmarket, present.

Mrs. A. Baxter prepared an excellent paper on old fashioned medical remedies and present day treatment. This proved very amusing and interesting.

The grandmothers prepared an interesting program of games which were heartily enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Sydney Edwards gave a reading, Grandma Stays Out Late.

A prize was given to oldest person present, Mrs. Chas. Flintoff, and also youngest person, Shiela Foote, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Foote.

A lunch of sandwiches and tarts was served by the historical research committee of Mrs. A. Baxter, Mrs. E. Johnston, Mrs. D. Hope, Mrs. W. Johnston, Mrs. R. McClure and Mrs. E. Sheppard. It was decided to hold the September meeting in the evening at the home of Mrs. G. Wood. A collection will be taken at this meeting to send boxes of food overseas.

Douglas and Gordon Petch, Markdale, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. McClure and Mr. and Mrs. Rae McClure.

Miss Ethel Giles, Toronto, has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Edwards, Cedar Valley.

Mrs. Baker, Stouffville, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Lundy, and Mr. Lundy, Cedar Valley.

Orphie Orr Returns Home After 5,000 Mile U.S. Tour

Maple—Orphie Orr of this centre, who is well known in junior farmer club work in Ontario, has just returned home after completing a tour of West Virginia and neighboring states giving lectures on the organization of junior farmer clubs.

The purpose of her six-week tour was to inform the young farmers of that part of the country how Ontario groups are formed and developed. Many of the young people she met were keenly interested in matters of finance, membership and the problems of starting such organizations. Her trip, which took in around 5,000 miles, was somewhat of a goodwill visit. Most of the young Americans were interested in Canadian agriculture and there were expressions of appreciation for good Canadian hospitality.

It was through Charles Hartley, a 4-H club state leader and Lundy, and Mr. Lundy, Cedar Valley.

Mr. J. Pyle, Cedar Valley, has been confined to Christie St. military hospital, Toronto.

Gordon Petch, Markdale, who was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard McClure, underwent an appendix operation at York County hospital last week.

Have Picnic

The school children enjoyed a delightful outing and picnic at Radcliffe's park on Saturday under the leadership of Rev. N. Rowan.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy VanLoven, Los Angeles, Cal., are visiting Mr. VanLoven's sister, Mrs. Jas. Hope, and Mr. Hope.

Rev. Alex. Donner, Stouffville, was in charge of the service at Union church on Sunday, Aug. 17. Rev. Donner's well delivered message was filled with inspiration and helpful thoughts.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Sheridan and family of Pleasantville were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sheridan.

Rev. and Mrs. P. L. Graham, Otsego, Mich., and Mrs. Ralph Denne, Newmarket, spent Monday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Armitage.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Allen and Miss Aleta Widdfield attended the funeral of Mrs. Peter Lehman at Stouffville on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. R. Chapman spent a couple of days last week with Mr. and Mrs. W. Johnston.

Threshing commenced last week in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Armitage spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Adair, Aurora.

The Pine Orchard baseball team are to be congratulated on their splendid record during the season.

of the West Virginia farm extension department, that Miss Orr made the six-week tour. He sent the invitation that took the young woman into every county of that state.

Miss Orr expressed her keen interest in the trip and said that she never felt fatigued through the whole tour. In every community she was met by a courteous and interested extension representative and received pleasant hospitality everywhere, she said.

BELHAVEN

Mrs. Ross Cunningham Dies In Toronto Aug. 6

Elizabeth Evelyn Prosser, widow of the late Ross Edgar Cunningham and daughter of the late Isaac and Rebecca Prosser, died in St. Michael's hospital, Toronto, Aug. 6, following an operation June 3.

The funeral service was held on Saturday, Aug. 9, in Toronto, and the burial was in Queensville cemetery beside her husband, who died on June 5, 1929, leaving six children, the youngest of whom was Margaret, three years old. The others all living, are Charles of Toronto, Aubrey of Ottawa, Wendell, Laurie, Reba (Mrs. Murray Boyd), of Toronto. Two sisters survive Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. A. J. Wilson (Flora Alice), Toronto, and Mrs. Wm. L. Winch (Edith Terry), Belhaven.

Mrs. Cunningham was born near Sharon October 2, 1889, and later lived at Keswick where she was a member of Keswick Methodist church choir for several years. For some years she has lived in Toronto, having purchased a new house on Ronan Ave., off Lawrence Ave., Toronto. She will always be remembered by those who knew her and loved her best for her implicit faith in God, and her kindly and cheerful disposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Cunningham and Betty Marie of Ottawa, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Cunningham and Gordon of Toronto were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Winch on Sunday evening, and on Monday afternoon, guests were Mr. and Mrs. Scheele of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. Grover Morrison of Sutton West.

Several farmers have threshed their wheat in the field.

Hot weather has been in order as far north as Belhaven and Jackson's Point during the last week.

"Face Future Unafraid"

Padre Tells New Branch

King — "Stand on your own feet and face the future with confidence," Rev. E. W. G. Worrell, padre of King branch 438, Canadian Legion, told district veterans last Sunday as the new legion branch's colors were dedicated at an impressive ceremony held on the lawn of All Saint's church, King.

"We need more veterans in parliament," he said. "Men who will not be bound by party ties, but will legislate for the whole country and who will see that Canada takes its rightful place in world affairs, and does all it can to maintain peace." He warned his audience against the

HEDLEY FAGIN DIES FOLLOWING ACCIDENT

A roadside fatality at the entrance to the village of Caledon East on Friday, Aug. 8, snuffed out the lives of two young Mono Mills men, Hedley Fagin, 26 years of age, youngest son of Mrs. D. J. Wilson, Sharon, and the late Dr. H. V. Fagin, and Spence Murray, who was riding in the car with him.

Born in Mono Mills on May 19, 1921, Mr. Fagin was educated at Mono Mills public school and Orangeville high school. He was enthusiastic about sports and excelled especially in lacrosse, playing for several teams. A painful leg injury he received on the lacrosse field in 1939 resulted in three operations and several months in the hospital.

For the past year and a half Hedley had been owner and operator of the Shell service station and garage at Mono Mills. Before taking over this business, he had worked in a Toronto garage where he received his licensed mechanic's papers. Deceased was a member of Mono Mills United church and a former member of its choir.

Hedley was gifted in music, which he studied all through his life, playing the piano, violin and any other string instrument.

80% Of All Learning Comes Through The Eyes

RESEARCH FACTS REVEAL that 80 percent of all learning, comes through our eyes! Statistics show that one of five school children, two out of five college students, six out of ten women need glasses.

OPTOMETRY

CAN HELP YOUR CHILD TO BETTER GRADES

When your child begins school at the age of six, three per cent of the class will need glasses. When they are ready graduate from grade school 20 percent of the class have defective vision. Are you certain your child will be among them?

10 Danger Signals To Look For

1. Constant rubbing of the eyes
2. Exhaustion or listlessness after long reading
3. When light "hurts" the eyes
4. Frowning or scowling
5. Holding reading matter very close to eyes
6. Redness or irritation
7. Squinting
8. Holding head to one side while reading
9. Dislike of games requiring use of eyes
10. Dislike of reading

A chart-on-the-wall system does not, by any means, snuff out the children who need correction of visual defects, thorough VISUAL ANALYSIS by an eye-sight specialist needed. Then with visual defects corrected, a child's ability to keep pace with the program of his schoolwork finds himself running right along with the others. Thus the optometrist definitely takes his place along with the teacher in opening up the "dead end" which confronts many youngsters through no fault of their own.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT BAIL OF $2,000 SET FOR TORONTO MEN

Newmarket — D. C. Hamilton and John J. Russell, both of Toronto, were remanded for a week on $2,000 bail in magistrate's court on Friday morning when they were arraigned on charges of stealing 3,000 feet of lumber and a quantity of sod. The lumber, valued at $250, was allegedly stolen from H. Dike, Mount Albert, in July, while the sod was said to have been stolen from Walter Case, Mount Albert, and was valued at $125. Harry Rose, Toronto, acted for both accused. Magistrate O. S. Hollinrake, O.B.E., K.C., presided.

A youth was placed on suspended sentence for a year when he was convicted of breaking and entering by day, and of two theft charges. A charge that James R. Winch, Toronto, had liquor in an illegal place was dismissed.

"I wanted my son to have this experience in court. I am satisfied that he did not know he was doing wrong," Reginald H. Jameson said on behalf of his son, who was charged with careless driving. "He drives my car and a light delivery truck, regularly, and there must have been some misjudgment on his part or he would not be in trouble now. He has been driving since he was 16, and has always been a careful driver. He is 21 now."

Constable George Foster said that Jameson had been passing cars on dangerous curves on the Hedge road. Magistrate Hollinrake fined Jameson $20 and costs.

Morris Goldstein, Sutton, was fined $5 and costs when he was found guilty of operating an amusement park at Jackson's Point without a license. Chief Constable William Burke said Goldstein maintains a midway at Jackson's Point, and under a civic by-law requires a license to do so. Goldstein said he paid $92 in all for licenses for his bowling alley, miniature golf course, and popcorn stand, but did not have a license to operate a "place of amusement."

THE COMMON ROUND

By ELEANOR COLLINS

COMRADESHIP

As we grow older we tend, I think, to cherish more and more the friendships which the years have proven. When we are very young, friendships are made rapidly, pursued violently and with a few beautiful exceptions, where the associations are lifelong, end abruptly. And there is a comradeship where common interests, ideas, and ideals bring utterly dissimilar people together.

Our Women's Institutes combine a lot of these elements to form a bond which is one of the pleasantest in rural life.

The two great shows we have seen in our combined strength could be and our 50th anniversary celebration at Guelph showed us how "great oaks from little acorns grow," and how our branches stretch out over almost the whole world, dropping the acorns of hope, of substantial gifts and of comradeship over the places where just such help is terribly needed.

Felt The Comradeship

I pondered on this help and this comradeship as I sat with other members of our Bogartown Institute in the cool classroom of the Mount Albert United church where we were being entertained by our sister Institute of that place. We felt the comradeship whenever we were met at the door by Mrs. Sinclair and Mrs. Steeper — friends of many a district annual and convention. Then as others came up and met us, the feeling grew — we felt at home because of the welcome we received and the community of interests which we shared.

As I listened to their secretary, Mrs. Harrison, report on their work for Britain, their generous giving of clothes and food to their sisters less fortunate, the feeling grew in me, that here was an influence in the lives of all women who belonged to the W.I. that fostered all our better instincts and led us gently but firmly away from the selfishness that so easily besets us if our own lives are comfortable.

Tell of Blue Cross

Mrs. Mitchell, the president, asked Mrs. G. McClure to tell something of our experience with the Blue Cross hospitalization plan as they were considering adopting it, and Mrs. McClure told them of our entire satisfaction and of the many in our Institute who already have had reason to bless its benefits. The meeting was then turned over to our president, Mrs. Frank Williams, and a short program was given. Mrs. Elmer Starr gave a short talk on Citizenship and Temperance. Your scribe sang The Voice of Home; Master Murphy of Newmarket gave a recitation, Vacation; Miss Leonora Starr gave an excellent reading on Miss Emily Guest; Mrs. Roy Harper gave a paper on Nursery Rhymes. As I have always dearly loved them I listened avidly and realized they were not just nursery rhymes but jingles of real historic interest. In fact the one way, in the days of Henry VIII and Queen Elizabeth, that the common folks could make their feelings known and yet not suffer punishment.

Win Contest

Your scribe sang again — a kitten song—Like Mother—and Master Murphy gave another recitation, Counting Eggs. Mrs. G. McClure conducted a contest, the prizes for which were won by Irene Harper Proctor and Mrs. Ewart, and then the program closed with God Save the King. Both presidents expressed their pleasure on our getting together and this feeling was shared by all the members.

A delightful lunch of ice cream and cake was most acceptable on that hottest day of the year, as was the social half-hour which went with it. As we wended our way home, we felt that we should get together oftener — it makes for both entertainment and enlightenment.

Golden Glow Enthralled By 'Memory Acres' Beauty

When an invitation to a "band concert at Memory Acres" on Tuesday evening, Aug. 12, was received, I was aglow with keen expectation but it was nothing compared to the glow I felt after the enjoyable outing. The anticipation and the expectation were fulfilled far beyond belief for Memory Acres has everything nature has to offer.

I'd better come down to earth and explain what that delightful name refers to and just where it is situated. Memory Acres is the section of land behind the old homestead of the late Hon. E. J. and Mrs. Davis and the early home of the Davis family, Newmarket. The foundation stones which are all that is left of the Kinghorn tannery, founded by ancestors of the Davis family several generations ago, can still be seen there. Mr. Aubrey Davis has taken the land over and it is my memory does not fail me, he had it made a bird sanctuary some years ago. Now he is making it into a place of beauty and interest to the community. I heard it said at the concert "This surely is an answer to prayer for you in King — a place like this. It will be a gift beyond price."

Scouts Direct Us

We had a pleasant drive down and at the corner of the King side road were Boy Scouts directing us to turn to our right and again, more Boy Scouts to direct us into the gateway along the fifth concession a short distance. At once we saw there were many ahead of us and the band was on a little knoll looking quite gallant in their scarlet coats with the bandmaster, Mr. Robert Moore, in white and Mr. J. O. Little, the godfather of the band, smilingly greeting all comers.

Cars were parked in orderly rows under the watchful eyes of the Boy Scouts. All the available seats were filled to overflowing so many were seated on the grass on rugs and blankets.

Towards the house and barns were the booths with all kinds of good things to tempt the visitors, pie a la mode, hot dogs, cold drinks, tea and coffee and, of course, ice cream. The Women's Institute was doing a rushing business and I am sure were well repaid, besides making it their annual outing.

There was a rustic bridge leading over a little ravine towards the house so we followed the path and saw the pheasants, then down another path by the river, over another little bridge with a waterfall below and above that were ducks in the water. Over the bridge we found a sunken garden. The garden is beside the King highway and there is a tall wrought-iron gateway leading on to the road.

It was there the Davis family happened to be when we came along. I was greeted by the three Davis brothers, here in town, and Mrs. Webb and her daughter and I saw Elmer Davis from Kingston, seated in one of the comfortable resting places half way up lover's walk. What a grand reunion at the old homestead it must have been for them and how delighted they must be to have the old home grounds turned into Memory Acres. They were surrounded by old friends from far and near.

On The Banks Of The Humber

I am still thrilled at the wonderful work Mr. Aubrey Davis has accomplished down there already and I wish my poor pen could adequately tell about it. Did I say that the stream, running through, is the Humber in its early stages; that the land is situated below Lady Eaton's summer home where I have heard the Humber really has its source? The land to the south is all cleared but on the other side of the little river, the bank ascends sharply and is covered with beautiful tall trees. The "lover's walk" goes up by a gradual ascent over planked steps, up the side of the hill. About half way up, you branch off to visit the wishing well. There, more Boy Scouts and young people were ready to dip the bucket in the well for you and tell you to wish as you took a drink. It was lovely, cool, spring water and as it was a very hot night indeed, being near 80 degrees, it was most acceptable! Then back to the main path. It turned and under a rustic arch, paralleled the river. There were bird shelters and feeding boxes on many trees but the birds were in the trees. You could hear bird voices everywhere but no doubt they thought discussion the better part of valor and retired to the trees till we went away. You kept climbing gradually till you almost were looking over the tops of the trees and now and again you caught glimpses of the scene below. It was a delight to sit at one of the tables and circular benches where a half-circle had been cut from the hill side to make a little alcove for one to rest. The ferns that formed the background were huge. Everything has been left as far as possible as nature formed it. King district is noted for its hills and hollows and that was one place to see it in its wonderful setting.

It was there Mr. Aubrey Davis met us and said he sure and go on to the fountain and sample the Adam's ale at the end. I was walking with Miss Alice Ferguson who used to teach Kinghorn school when the Davis family was young and it was fun to hear their recollections of old days at the little red school house.

We went on to the end of the path, Journey's End, and what a fine end to any path, for there was a fountain of natural stones with the water coming out of a pipe inside the hooded cavern built of rugged no-line stones and the overflow forming a little stream. On a hooked wire, on the tree shading it, hung a drinking cup. The finishing touch was a beautifully made picnic table seating four in the circle of small shade trees. The whole place had all been re-rod making a delightful dining-room with rustic chairs at each side. There was a constant stream of interested visitors up and down, loud in their praises of the privilege of being allow-

POTTAGEVILLE

Rev. C. E. Cragg has returned from his vacation looking well. On Sunday, Aug. 17, he preached at the United church. His sermon was taken from the 27th chapter of Psalms, 13th verse: "I had fainted unless I had believed."

A trio composed of Annie Mae Hutt, Jack Proctor and Bruce Elder sang, "Wonderful Words of Life."

On August 24 the re-opening of Kettleby United church will be held. All are invited to attend this service. The Pottageville church and Sunday-school will be closed on that day.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Funnell included the following, Mr. and Mrs. L. Pritchard and son, Teddy, and Mr. and Mrs. George Holland, all of Toronto, also Mr. and Mrs. John Tienkamp and son, Alan.

Mrs. George West and Barbara have returned home after spending a few days at Alcoma Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Emmerson, Nobleton, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cole, Woodbridge, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Jarvis.

Mr. E. O'Brien spent a week recently at Atherley.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Davis and son, Tommy, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. George West. Mr. and Mrs. T. Blackburn spent Sunday with friends at Musselman's Lake.

Miss Betty Crouch, Oshawa, spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Maughan recently. Mr. Ross Charlton spent two weeks at Erie, Penn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, New Toronto, visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Blackburn on Friday.

ed to wander there at will since Mr. Aubrey Davis had thrown it open to everyone. I hope I will see it again soon for in one short visit one can scarcely take in all its delight! I feel as if I am speaking for everyone who was there that evening when I say "Thank you, Mr. Davis."

WILLOW BEACH

A hamburger party was held to celebrate Rita Jacob's sixth birthday on August 8. Among those present were Joan Chapman, Marie, Lucille and Lolita Fezzari, Donna Leyden and Eileen Woods, Bolton, Eng., and Ann Armitage, Hamilton.

What Is A Pharmacist?

The function of the pharmacist is distinct and set apart from that of the physician. As pharmacists we are trained and skilled in the art of compounding and dispensing medicine. We are not qualified to diagnose your illness nor to prescribe the proper medication. Waste and suffering commonly result from experimenting with various forms of self-medication. Go to your physician first. After a careful examination he will tell you whether or not medicine will help. If he gives you a prescription, bring it to us for expert compounding. You will find our facilities and service adequate to every need.

In Memoriam. Morris—To the memory of a dear husband and father, William Morris, who passed away Aug. 19, 1941.

From our happy home and circle God has taken the one we love; Still he guides and watches over us.

From his better home above Wife and family.

Schubert—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Lee Schubert, who died August 21, 1941.

A beautiful memory, dearer than gold Of a husband whose worth can never be told.

Alone, unseen, he stands by our side And whispers "Don't grieve, death cannot divide".

Deep in our hearts a memory is kept Of one we loved and will never forget.

And though the years be many or few We'll always be thinking, dear Father, of you.

Always remembered by wife Aino and daughter Karen.

Sedore—In loving memory of a dear mother, Florence Sedore, who passed away Aug. 19, 1940.

It's loneliness at home without you, Mom.

And sad the weary way; For life is not the same to me Since you were called away.

If I had all the world to give, I would give it yes, and more.

To hear your voice and see you smile, And greet you at the door.

So you who have a mother Cherish her with care; You'll never know a heartache Till you see her vacant chair.

Daughter Mary, son-in-law Dave, and Donald.

Converting A Miser

Clark is ten years old. His chief delight is earning money, which is closely followed by his pleasure in saving his own money and spending other people's money. Two years ago Clark began earning a regular sum by helping an older boy with his paper route—delivering papers daily and helping with collections once a week. It wasn't just a passing fancy with Clark. For two years he has saved every cent he has earned and plans to buy a paper route of his own some day.

Clark's parents are financially able to provide him with extravagances as well as the necessities of life and have been doing so until just recently when they awakened to the fact that they were encouraging their son to be a miser, and which is worse, a sponger.

Wants Are Many

Clark's wants are many and very important; but he is never willing to spend any of his savings to satisfy them. He has a way of getting relatives to provide him with gifts—which take care of his wants. Clark's lust for money has prompted him to sell gifts received and even to ask for things for the purpose of selling them.

Clark has not proven a good bargainer—he was satisfied with 25 cents for a new pair of mitts, 15 cents for a rugby ball, 20 cents for a watch that kept perfect time, ten cents for a very special type pocket knife, etc.

In fact, he was satisfied with any deal that left him more money to add to his savings.

Obviously, something had to be done.

Just a week ago, the young man asked for a bicycle for his birthday. It was a reasonable request but his parents decided to attach a few strings to the bicycle. First, he couldn't sell it without their permission. Second, he was to contribute $10 to its purchase.

This time, Clark had no intentions of selling the bicycle. He figured that the bicycle would help him cover more territory on the paper route and he could earn more money that way. The second stipulation did bother Clark, though. He said he couldn't and wouldn't spend his savings. His parents were prepared for that answer and suggested he pay just what he could save over his usual weekly sum.

It took Clark an entire day to make up his mind. Then, he decided the bicycle was worth $10 of his future savings.

It is to be hoped that Clark learns to value possessions and becomes less miserly about money. Chances are he will really appreciate and enjoy his birthday bicycle because a portion of his earnings helped buy it.

VISIT IN U.K. BRINGS PUBLICITY TO AURORA

Aurora — Miss Valencia McNaught flew home this week from England where she has spent the past few months. Her brother, Charles "Mickey" McNaught, popular Aurora high school student and athlete, remained in England and he will enter the medical school at Sheffield next month.

Aurora obtained some publicity as Valencia was interviewed and photographed by the Daily Mirror as she boarded the plane to Canada. Ben Harrison of Spruce St. received word of the picture appearing in the paper from a relative in England, and he now awaits his copy of the paper.

TAUGHT IN AURORA, MRS. R. GRIEVES DIES

Aurora — The death occurred suddenly on Sunday, August 17, after a brief illness, of Mrs. Ralph Grievies, Metcalfe St. formerly Ethel Hacking. Mrs. Grievies was born in Aurora, attending Aurora public and high schools and Toronto Normal School. In her school days she was prominent in sports, and was an outstanding member of the basketball and softball clubs, as well as being interested in tennis.

She was a member of the staff of Aurora public school before her marriage and when the shortage of teachers became acute in war years she was supply teacher for the school. This year she had accepted an appointment to the staff of the school. A member of Aurora United church, she was for some years a member of the choir and was interested in church organizations. She was for some years a member of the Aurora Public Library Board.

She is survived by her husband, three small children, Penny, Headley and Linda, her mother, Mrs. R. V. Hacking, all of Aurora, and two brothers, George of Cobourg, and Robert of Trenton.

The funeral service was held from Aurora United church on Tuesday with Rev. Roy Hicks in charge. Pallbearers were Roy Grievies, Harry Mole, Milton Graham, George Baldwin, William Ward and Keith Milligan. Interment was at Aurora cemetery.

TRANSFER GEO. MOODY TO BOWMANVILLE BANK

Aurora—George Moody, manager of the Bank of Montreal here since 1942, is being transferred to Bowmanville and he and his family will shortly take up residence in that municipality.

Mr. Moody succeeded Harry Aldrich as manager of the local branch, and he has been actively associated with community activities since coming to Aurora. He is treasurer of the Aurora Board of Trade, the Aurora Navy League, and vice-president of the Aurora Lions club. He is a member of the Highlands Golf club, the Aurora Red Cross and Aurora Horse Show executives.

His successor will be C. A. Welk, at present manager at Tilbury. Mr. Moody leaves next week for Bowmanville and Mr. William Duff will be acting manager of the local branch until the arrival of Mr. Welk who will report after his holidays.

LEGION NEWS

The King branch of the Canadian Legion held their drum head service on Sunday, Aug. 10. The Newmarket branch was represented by a color party of Bert Pratt and Harold Sanderson. Charles Near and George Wales acted as guards.

A social evening for all members of the Newmarket branch and their ladies is scheduled for tomorrow evening, Aug. 22, at the club rooms. Refreshments will be served.

All Legionnaires who are attending the York county picnic on August 30 as helpers are requested to contact the secretary, Wm. LaParde.

James Wood is at present at Christie St. hospital. His condition is reported as "improving".

Wm. Fines expects to be home by September 15. He is at present a patient at Kingston military hospital.

FIRE ALARMS

Newmarket—Councillor R. C. Morrison told the Newmarket town council on Monday night that considerable trouble had been experienced lately with the present fire alarm box system. "We have 27-30 boxes which need checking, and this might run into money," he said. "I wanted to get guidance from the council before anything is done."

At the suggestion of Reeve Arthur D. Evans, Councillor Morrison was instructed to get prices on a new fire alarm system. "It has been overdue for ten years," Reeve Evans said.

ASK ABOUT FREE USE

Newmarket—At the meeting of the Newmarket town council on Monday night, Councillor Frank Bowser said that the Women's Institute has never been advised of the council's decision concerning the use of the town hall by the Institute free of charge on certain days. "The members of the Institute want to plan their work and they request a report," Councillor Bowser said.

The matter was referred to the property committee, which instructed Councillor Bowser that he could assure the Institute members that "they will be treated kindly".

I want to know how much does it cost to keep your family?

Caring for his family in the way it deserves takes much of a man's effort.

But the cost of adequately providing for your loved ones would be just about the same, even if you were not here.

Since 1869, the Mutual Life of Canada has been providing policyholders with low cost life insurance.

Call and see our representative and let him show you how easy it is to be sure that your family will be properly looked after, no matter what happens to you.

Pass $17,000 Debentures To Meet School Costs

Aurora—The town planning committee recommended to council that while they had no objection, and in fact thought it advisable for the municipality to accept the ownership of the Aurora public library property from the Aurora public school board, they did not recommend the advisability of considering the site a "permanent library site" or proceeding further.

At its meeting last week, council referred to the town solicitor and to the planning board a proposed by-law which would prohibit the erection of anything but single, detached, private dwelling houses in the new Council subdivision.

A by-law providing for the issuance of $17,000 for school purposes was passed by council. This covers the architect's fees for drafting plans and for the acquisition of certain properties required by the school board's expansion program. The Ontario municipal board in approving the issue provided that the debentures must be redeemed within five years and must be issued within 18 months of the granting of the order.

INSTALL SAND-BOXES IN TOWN PARKS

Aurora—A sand box for children has been set up in the Aurora town park at a cost of less than $12, Councillor Thomas Swindle reported to council last week. Others will also be provided for the town park and for McMahon park as well. Because of possible liability against the municipality in case of accidents, council did not accept any responsibility for a sand box installed on the Quinn property on Tyler St. and because of lack of supervision at the town park, refused to agree to the installation of swings for smaller children in Aurora town park.

"We can carry on the Tyler St. plan by private donation," said Councillor Swindle. "If council won't provide funds we can get some donations from interested persons. One citizen has offered to donate $50 towards the plan." "I approve of the plan submitted by Councillor Swindle but I think it all fits in with the securing of a recreation director," said Councillor Charles Davies. "We need to have all the plans co-ordinated."

"There is quite a bit of trouble in getting a recreation director and a community program although I am strongly in favor of it," said, Councillor Swindle. "You have to sell the idea to all groups in town and also sell the idea to the public. It must be on a community basis. I think the securing of a bit of equipment for the town park will start people thinking along those lines. They will see the value it is to the town."

The destruction of property and equipment formerly in the park by juveniles and the possible liability by the municipality were discussed at length by the members.

'SCRAP OF PAPER'

Aurora—Urging council members not to treat the Aurora dog by-law as "a scrap of paper," J. K. Smythe, Jr., Aurora, wrote council urging that drastic action be taken to enforce the by-law. Mr. Smythe complained of as many as five dogs in his lawn and garden at one time. "You have a dog by-law and it is up to you to enforce it. As a taxpayer, I have the right to ask you to do so," said Mr. Smythe's letter. Council referred the letter to the Aurora police for action.

ROAD SIGNS

Aurora—To check speeding and reckless drivers on Church St. and Metcalfe St., school warning and "slow" signs will be erected in the vicinity of Aurora public school.

Timely Advice To

MOTORISTS Waiting For New Cars

Don't...

dispose of your present car now. Automobile dealers have orders for thousands more cars than they expect to secure from factories this year. So they may not be able to deliver your new car as soon as you expect. HANG ON to your present car until you KNOW that your new car has actually arrived. Otherwise you may be piling up mileage on foot!

Do...

keep your present car in best possible condition! Have it serviced regularly! Then when you do get your new car, you'll get a better price for the old one. Meantime, you'll enjoy better driving and you'll be protected against inconvenient breakdowns or even serious accidents.

Remember...

your automobile dealer is doing his level best to get your new car for you as soon as possible. And he is seeing that deliveries are made on the fairest possible basis. So please be patient. Your turn will come!

CANDIDEN

By JOHN DALY
Vice President, Newmarket
Horticultural Society

Still looking to the future, I am reminded that certain fall-blooming plants should be planted soon. The fall catalogues are beginning to arrive and the bulbs should be ordered without delay. I'm thinking of fall crocus and Colchicum in particular. They must be planted not later than September, blooming a few weeks later.

Unfortunately the fall crocus is not as hardy as the spring-blooming type and needs some protection over the winter. Col-chicums are quite hardy. They are often called fall crocus but erroneously so as they are not related. The blooms are like crocus but much larger. These bulbs will bloom in the house without soil or water. Just lay them on a table or desk and watch them grow. Afterwards they may be planted outside where the leaves will grow in the spring followed by flowers again in the fall.

Erantthis, commonly called Winter Aconite, about the first flower of the spring, should also be planted as soon as possible.
Most of the other bulbs can wait until October.

The backbone of the spring garden is, of course, the tulips, and the number of different types is increasing from year to year. The most noteworthy of recent developments is the late double-flowering variety, sometimes called peony flowered.
Newer varieties of the old reliable Darwin, Cottage and Breeder tulips are bigger and better than ever.

Novelty Tulips
Then the Parrot tulip novelties are well worth growing.
One of them, the Blue Parrot, was, I think, the outstanding tulip in my garden last spring.
For something different try a few varieties of tulipa (tulip species). These are the original tulips found growing wild in various parts of the world. Some are tiny little things, only six inches high, while others have quite large flowers.

Next in importance come the Narcissus. These are not nearly so widely grown as they should be. I don't know why, unless it is because people use up all the money they can afford on tulips before they come to the narcissus.

There are several types including the best known, the Daffodils. The others are just as beautiful. The various types are distinguished by the length of the cup or trumpet, Poeticus or Poet's Narcissus having a very small flattened eye while the Daffodil is at the other extreme with a long trumpet. In between we have the Barri with a cup one-third or less the length of the petal, Incomparabilis, a cup more than one-third, and Seerdi
a short cupped Daffodil. Poetaz is a bunch-flowered Narcissus with many small flowers, several to each stem. A number of double flowered varieties can also be had.

BACKACHE

The 'Plague of Outdoor Men

Dr. Chase's Kidney Pills

The outdoor man, whether he be farmer, truck driver, or railway operator, is often subject to backache.
This may be the result of exposure to cold and dampness or the result of strain from the jolting and bumping of the vehicle he rides.
To many people, women as well as men, it would be great to be free of backache—one of the most common and annoying of ailments. And here is how you may be relieved of backache and other symptoms of poisons in the blood.

BOWL TONIGHT
Aurora and Richmond Hill bowling clubs will be the guests of the Newmarket club on Thursday, Aug. 25.

Rinks will be drawn that evening. Newmarket members are requested to hand in their names as soon as possible. Play will commence at 7 p.m.

LANGSTAFF UPSETS EXPERTS' PREDICTIONS

Langstaff softballers pulled a big upset on Monday night as they ousted Richmond Hill from the North Yonge softball race and won their way to the finals. The teams were in the third game and it ended 12-8. Errors and free hitting marked the play, the veteran Hill players being the victims of several lapses by outfielder Herb Rose and others. Bowen on the Langstaff mound tightened once his lead was established. Teddy Bennett and Ron O'Dell did the hurling for Richmond Hill. The play-off wins marked the only occasions the Langstaff team have been able to defeat the Hill, and Fred Morris' youthful club finished in the cellar.

RAINED OUT

Aurora juveniles made the trip to Whitby on Monday night for the first game of the O.B.A. round, but were rained out in the last half of the first frame. The return game in Whitby will likely be played either Friday night or Saturday afternoon.

DOWN THE CENTRE

By AN HULSE

Lacrosse has finally reached the finals, with Inglewood, from Peel county, clashing with Maple in the finals. The series opened at Orangeville on Tuesday, and tomorrow night those who like their sports to have plenty of action and excitement can catch a glimpse of the Buds this season, but you can never tell. Certainly the biggest crowd of the year will be on hand to see the game, under well nigh perfect conditions.

Loring Doolittle made a fine showing last week at the Toronto baseball school. "Ozark Ike" was among the eight outfield candidates selected for the final game. He was among the final 36 chosen from over 500 candidates, which speaks volumes for his ability, and the team he played with, managed by Gene Desautels, Leaf catcher, was regarded as the better of the two. He played five innings, made a great try for a home run ball and cut down the effort to two bases, failed to hit, but got on through an error in three times at the plate.

He caught the eye of more than one scout. Loring was warm in his praise of George Bennington, who groomed the youthful outfielders, and also of Desautels, claims he learned more inside ball in three days than ever. His comments, however, about arrangements and the niggardly policy of the Toronto ball club were quite common, although you didn't see a word of it in the Toronto press. He reports Hop Hemphill, who played for Toronto minor teams in the playoffs against both Aurora and Newmarket, has been signed by Boston Red Sox.

Joe Megani, the dynamic defenceman of Newmarket Hoffman's, after concluding his softball season with Bradford, has been umpiring the playoffs in the South Simcoe circuit with considerable success. John Stuart, the former Aurora boy, unveils his Oakwood Indians football club for public approval next Saturday at Oakwood stadium. It marks the earliest football has been played for the public in Canada, and the opposition will be none other than the famed Ottawa Roughriders, who had a fine club last year and have been strengthened by Amerks. Mr. Stuart is said to have one or two stalwart Yankees to show too. Incidentally, as Mr. Stuart is a regular reader of this column, we'd like to remind him that Principal Knowles, of Aurora high, has an idea that Messrs. Hulse and Stuart are producing "Box and Cox" at the annual commencement, a play they performed over 20 years ago. A few rehearsals might be in order.

Bill Boaks, proxy of the Highlands Golf club, has issued an urgent request to all members entered in the Century, handicap, and other events to get their matches underway. The draw is posted at the club house, and members are reminded of crowded weekend conditions. A little co-operation, gents, will ease the situation and the worries of the hard working executive committee.

AND STILL THEY COME!

Charlie Case, genial manager of the Aurora softball club, picks the following two all-star clubs in the North Yonge league. First team: c, Charlie VanZant (N); p, Bill Bowen (Langstaff); 1b, Mo Walsh (N); 2b, George Hodgins (A); 3b, Doug Eves (N); ss, Loring Doolittle (A); outfield, Mickey Smith (N), Herb Cain (N), Will White (A). Second team: c, Hal Echlin (R Hill); p, Joint McComb (N); 1b, Earl MacDonald (A); 2b, Fred Evans (N); 3b, Mickey Sutton (A); ss, Harvey Gibney (N); outfield, Jim Crean (R Hill), Art Crean (R Hill), Red Castles (A).

A player himself, Charlie didn't give himself a tumble. He regards second and short stop positions as lacking outstanding performances. Joint McComb and Earl MacDonald he picks as the two most versatile players in the group, both players having been shifted as needed without affecting their general usefulness. "A lot of people may be surprised to see me place Red Castles up there. No player in the league, however, has better team spirit, he is a nice feller and gets a hit when least expected," comments "Casey".

George Haskett casts a roving eye and the voice of experience over the junior baseball field produces two fine clubs as follows: first team: c, Stan Winger (N); p, John Andrews (A); Bill Hopper (N); 1b, Stan Miller (Stouffville); 2b, Grant Blight (N); 3b, Mickey Sutton (A); ss, Jimmy Rutledge (N); outfield, Tommy McHale (N), Loring Doolittle (A), Nick Proenko (Stouffville). Second team: c, Ken Schell (Stouffville); p, Tom Dales (N), Fred Spelman (Stouffville); 1b, Norm Stenden (A); 2b, Ron Simmons (A); 3b, Keith Jewett (Stouffville); ss, Orval Rows (Stouffville); outfield, Don Campbell (Stouffville), Bill McGhee (A), Lewis Raxlin (Stouffville). Hon. mention: Mac Clement (A), Lorne Schell (Stouffville), Don Brown (N), Polly Minton (Stouffville), Eric Smith (A), Jim McDonald (A).

"Red" Palmateer deserves a big hand for his effort this year, considering his work didn't give him a chance for practice. "I thought Tommy McHale was the outstanding outfielder," opines George. "The team selected would give a good account of itself in any junior B competition. The boys would take the championship with a month's practice together. I selected two pitchers and two for the second. Another factor in the selection was the habit of the various managers and coaches in changing their players around considerably. It might be a wise idea if it is possible to stack up the first team you have for your selection against the second team in an exhibition series around the circuit for charity. Personally, I thought the catching and second base were the toughest to select." The line forms at the right for anyone wishing to see the all-star team in action. How about it, Mr. Simmons?

Just so it won't confuse the issue, we'll keep brother Bill Haskett's selects for next week and give you those in the midge series as picked by Doug James, coach of the Markham club, who finished on top of the heap. First team: c, Black (M); p, Ringwood (M); 1b, Brown (M); 2b, Petch (M); 3b, Watson (M); ss, Hillaby (R Hill); outfield, Ward (S), Steffan (R Hill), McKnight (N). Second team: c, Hill (R Hill); p, G. Simmons (A); 1b, Patterson (R Hill), 2b, Ron Simmons (A); 3b, McArthur (R Hill); ss, Ramer (M); outfield, Thompson (M), Shea (M), Case (A). Wanted: More Lake Simcoe pickings. Messrs. Allison, Chapman, Eihann, Morlon, Dot Menar and one or two others are still on the missing list. It won't be my fault if some of the boys are missed.

THERE IS NO JOY IN MUDVILLE

Just like "Mighty Casey" who brought wailing and gnashing of teeth to the folks down Mudville way, so Tuesday and the clearing of smoke of battle found Newmarket junior baseball club and Richmond Hill softballers in the discard and their supporters still replaying the game. A better team on the night, if not the season, measured both and congratulations are in order to "Yorky" Smith and his battling Stouffville club and Fred Morris' youthful Langstaff aggregation. Stouffville should make a good showing in the O.B.A. race. Langstaff, according to the experts, shouldn't win over their final opponent.

To both George Haskett and Charlie Ryan, managers and promoters of the losing clubs, go words of consolation and an accolade for their splendid leadership and enthusiasm. If the players had spent the same amount of time or showed the same zip as Haskett and Ryan the clubs might still be going. Both clubs over the season were a credit to their municipalities. To the winners best wishes. To the losers—there's always another year and a rainbow "just around the corner".

Ottawa Rink Presented Wainman Cup By Donor

The Wainman trophy, presented to the Central Lawn Bowling club in Ottawa in 1921 by C. G. Wainman and up for competition every year since, was presented again on Thursday night to E. A. "Bill" Allen at an invitation tournament on the Newmarket greens. Mr. Allen was skip of the winning rink at the Ottawa club, and he and his boys were invited here when the Newmarket bowlers were making a name for themselves in Toronto. "I was in Ottawa for a holiday this summer and I visited the club at that time," Mr. Wainman said. "I found that the Wainman trophy was a coveted award within the club, but that there was no more room on it for shields, so I brought it home, modernized it, and made it good for another 25 years."

"When the Newmarket rink was bowling in Toronto last week Dr. C. E. VanderVoort, president of the Newmarket club, asked the boys from the capital here for a tournament. The last skip to win the Wainman trophy was among those who came, and I presented the renovated trophy to him." At the mixed rinks tournament which resulted, 20 teams competed, and the rink skipped by Ed Dawson, Ottawa, was high for three wins, with Dr. VanderVoort's rink second. Jack Grainger, Richmond Hill, and Charlie Fry, Aurora, skipped the rinks which were high for two and one wins respectively. The MacKenzie King trophy trebles tournament for the district only will be held on Friday night at the Newmarket greens at 7 p.m.

Redmen Lose Two Straight As Stouffville Wins Series

By GEORGE HASKETT, JR.

Stouffville Lions will once again represent North York in the O.B.A. junior play-downs. Friday evening the Lions copped the honors 8-4 and in the third and crucial game of the series on Monday took an 8-5 triumph. The third and deciding game was played at Aurora town park where one of the largest crowds of the current season was on hand. It was a thrilling contest.

Friday evening at Pantry Park with the Redmen one game up on the series, Stouffville registered an 8-4 win to square the set-1s. Right hander Bill Hopper took on the hurling duties for the canal town Friday. Three times this season "Hop" has beaten the invaders. This time it was an entirely different story. The Stouffville batters smashed out a six-run lead in the opening frame before Tommy Dales came in to end the rally. Dales set them down for two runs over the rest of the route.

The Redmen tried hard to get back in the game. In the initial frame, they counted twice and two runs crossed in the fifth. Freddie Spelman on the hilltop for the visitors tightened up in the pinches and proved equal to holding the locals to four counter and eight safeties.

The two Tommies, Dales and McHale, each had two hits. Catcher Stan Winger belted out a double and single. The other safe blows fell to the bats of Jim Rutledge and Don Brown.

Deciding Game
On Monday evening at Aurora, the Redmen pulled into a two-run lead in the second on successive singles from Tommy Dales, Bill Hopper and "Motts" Thoms.

LARRY MOLYNEUX WINS JARVIS SHIELD

For the third straight year, big Larry Molyneux of Newmarket, former professional hockey star, is the club champion of the Highlands Golf club and the holder of the Jarvis Shield for 1947. In the semi-finals Larry eliminated Harold Pringle, while Bill Sherwood ousted Cyril Hamlin to bring about an all-Newmarket final. Over the 36-hole route, Molyneux blasted his way to victory eight up and six to play with a steady display of golf. Until the final round, Sherwood had been turning in a sensational effort, but in the finals his putter lost its magic touch at the wrong time. So far as the records go Molyneux's win still leaves him behind club president William Boaks, who has captured the club championship nine times, five being straight efforts.

BACK IN THE RUNNING

Langstaff softballers bounded back into the play-off picture on Friday as they blanked Richmond Hill 4-0 over seven innings. Bill Bowen, with the addition of his regular catcher, Armstrong, pitched superb ball. The Hill were minus Teddy Bennett and Art Crean. Ron O'Dell tossed nice ball but received poor support. Charles and Saul provided the fielding features of the game.

WIN WALTON TROPHY

The team of Ray Jolley (skip), Vaughan Goring and Stanley Jones won the Walton Trophy at Agincourt greens yesterday with a score of 56. Lyman Rose (skip), John Macnab, and J. O. Little won the prize for the highest score for two wins.

NAMED TO SPORTS POST

T. A. M. Hulse, Aurora barrister, has been elected chairman of the sports committee of the Ontario command, Canadian Legion. The representative of district E on the committee for some months, Mr. Hulse succeeds Charles Dorrington of Peterboro who resigned because of his appointment as personnel manager of a new Canadian plant opening in Scotland. The committee is province-wide in its composition and jurisdiction and supervises Legion competition and minor sports promotion throughout Ontario.

WINS TROPHY

Dorothy Bowman defeated Joan Peppiatt in the ladies' singles tennis finals on Monday night to capture the Ella Lyons cup. The scores were 5-7, 7-5, 6-1. Mrs. Lyons presented the cup to Mrs. Bowman at the courts.

Charlie Lee won the right to play defending champion Keith Davis for the N. L. Mathews trophy, and the match is scheduled for tomorrow night at 7 p.m. The open tournament for players from Newmarket and district will be held on Wednesday, Aug. 27.

With a no-hit win against Aurora under their belts, the Newmarket Vets move into the finals against Langstaff here tonight in the Spillette cup playoffs. Holding an edge in the odds to take the three-of-five series against the southern centre, the Vets will play their second game of the finals Monday at Langstaff.

O.S.A. PLAYDOWNS

Newmarket Vets play either Lakeshore Legion (these Waterloo of last year), or Etobicoke here Wednesday night in the opener of O.S.A. Intermediate B play-downs. With the Vets running in high gear after breaching their way through the Spillette cup semi-finals, Mac McDonald holds their chances good to take them high in the O.S.A. ranking.

Joint McComb pitched the Vets to their victory Tuesday in an exhibition seldom surpassed. Over the eight-innings route, he faced 27 batters. He walked two and one reached first on an error. The remainder either popped out or were struck out. The outfield had an easy time of it, the ball never leaving the infield. Fred Evans at second base never touched the ball in play the whole evening but Mo Walsh had nine put-outs at first. In one inning, McComb tossed seven balls, struck out two batters and the third popped out.

TAKE FIRST GAME

Aurora juveniles defeated Whitby 6-2 last night at Aurora in the first round of the O.B.A. Andrews and Clement formed the Aurora battery. The second game will be played at Whitby on Tuesday, Aug. 26.

DEFEAT MIDLAND

The Newmarket Ladies' softball team defeated Midland 4-3 last evening in the first game of the F.W.S.U. playoffs. The return game will be played at Midland on Saturday at 2:30 p.m. with the third game at 6 p.m. if necessary.

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

The path to success is strewn with many pitfalls.

One which catches many victims is the tendency to regard oneself as being just another worker among a mass of other workers.

Such an attitude stifles achievement. Every man should regard himself as an individual with a unique combination of talents and skills. Realizing this he will try to make his own special contribution. Then, and only then, will he begin to advance.

By the same token, it is important to take a positive attitude toward each day's work. To one man, it is just a matter of so many hours of labor which must be done in order to provide the necessities of life. To another, each day is an opportunity to prove his skill and value—and to take another step toward his goal.

It won't be long before the second man's attitude pays off in increased income.

Every increase in income brings with it an opportunity to provide greater financial security through Life Insurance. The wide variety of plans and policies makes it possible to choose one that meets your individual financial requirements.
